Dear Mr Healy,

Like many television viewers, I have been watching with great interest, appreciation and respect your stand on the various aspects of the Gulf crisis. Coming from a statesman of your stature, your stand underlines the fact that there are still some fearless, just, objective and caring people left in this world.This is a ray of hope in the otherwise seemingly dark scenario that is unfolding before us.

We in the Islamic Council greatly appreciate your views which are marked by maturity, insight, truth and sanity. We hope that you will continue to exert your best efforts to defuse the frenzy that has seized the belligerents and salvage the situation as much as possible.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

Salem Azzam
